Motivational Statement

The first section of the application is the Motivational Statement. You must write a thoughtful paragraph explaining why you are motivated to serve in a national service program. We encourage applicants to provide specific examples and reasons for applying to AmeriCorps. Try to use examples from your personal or professional life that show that you are motivated to serve. Think of the motivational statement as a “mini essay.” Don’t be afraid to use personal examples in this statement!

Before moving forward in the application, check your motivational statement to ensure that it accurately reflects why you are applying for AmeriCorps national service.

Be sure to save your response! Please note that the online application system does not have a built-in spell check or grammar check feature.

Remember to use complete sentences and correct grammar and spelling while writing your volunteer response. Again, there is no spelling or grammar check so you may opt to compose your statement in Word or another program before entering it in the application.

Criminal History

Next, you must complete the criminal history questionnaire. All AmeriCorps members must complete a background check before beginning service, and the questionnaire is the first step in that process. Select the answers that apply to you, and then move on to the next step in the application process.

Please be honest and forthright with the information you provide. Any misinformation you provide will automatically disqualify you for service as an AmeriCorps member.

Please note that a criminal history alone does not disqualify an applicant from AmeriCorps service—the only crimes that disqualify applicants from service are sex offenses or murder. Other crimes can be accompanied by an explanation.

Criminal History Questionnaire

The AmeriCorps application process requires a criminal history check to ensure community members with whom we work are protected, particularly children, individuals with disabilities, and individuals over 60 years old.

We are investigating for past sexual offenses and violent crimes, or crimes that would have a direct bearing on your service. This background check will entail a search of the National Sex Offenders Public Registry and may include a statewide criminal history repository check and/or a FBI criminal history check, which will require you to submit fingerprints.

You will not be permitted to serve or work with children, individuals with disabilities, or individuals over 60 years of age, without supervision, until the history check is complete and you are cleared. The review process is not lengthy, and normally is completed within weeks.

Answer the following questions fully. Existence of a criminal conviction or juvenile adjudication may or may not, depending on circumstances, disqualify you from consideration. However, any intentional misrepresentation or omission is grounds for disqualification.

Click here for help.

Answer the following questions and include misdemeanors and any offense that led to pre-trial intervention and/or fines other than speeding or parking tickets.

Have you ever been convicted as an adult, or adjudicated as a juvenile offender, of at least one criminal offense by either a civilian or military court? Yes No

Are you currently facing charges for any offense, on probation or parole? Yes No

If you answered yes to any of the questions above, please provide the following information. (To record multiple convictions/adjudications, click the "add another" button, below.)

PAVE AmeriCorps

References

In order to move forward in the application process, you need two references completed online in the AmeriCorps portal.

Family members, friends, and coworkers are not appropriate references. In order to be approved for service, references must come from a job supervisor, professor, volunteer supervisor, or mentor.

We recommend that you contact each of your references in advance to ensure that they will be able to complete the online form for you.

On the references tab of the application, you can see each reference that you have created in the system, and whether or not that reference has completed the online application form. You can also choose different references to submit. To create a reference, click on the New Reference button.
